Saltdean Primary School

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE: Full Time Class Teacher Key Stage 1 or 2

REPORTS TO: Deputy Head, Head Teacher

DIRECTORATE: Education - Learning and Partnership

SECTION: Saltdean Primary School

PURPOSE OF JOB

- To carry out the professional duties of a teacher as circumstances may require and in accordance with the school's policies, under the direction of the Head Teacher.
- To offer learners a high quality educational experience in a stimulating environment that provides equality of opportunity, enabling all children to achieve their best.
- To be responsible for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children within the school.
- To be an effective member of the staff team, working in collaboration and partnership with learners, parents/carers, governors, staff and external agencies to achieve the school's objectives.

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTABILITIES

General duties and responsibilities of a qualified teacher

All teachers are required to carry out the duties of a school-teacher as set out in the current School Teachers Pay and Conditions document in order to meet the required National Standards for teachers. At this school, the following are of particular importance:

Teaching

- Be a positive role model in terms of behaviour, work and attitudes.
- Set high standards of work and behaviour in the class and all other areas of the school.
- Plan for progression across the age and ability range you teach, designing effective lessons/programmes of work in accordance with the needs of all learners.
- Teach challenging, well organised lessons, using an appropriate range of teaching strategies which meet individual learners' needs.
- Use an appropriate range of observation, assessment, monitoring and recording strategies as a basis for setting challenging learning and monitoring learners' progress and attainment.
- Provide timely, accurate and constructive feedback on learners' attainment, progress and areas for development.
- Deliver the National Curriculum as relevant to the age and ability group/subject that you teach, other relevant initiatives and the school's own curriculum plans.
- Work collaboratively on the preparation and development of teaching materials, methods of teaching and assessment and pastoral arrangements, as appropriate.
- Take responsibility for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people s/he is responsible for, or comes into contact with.

Other

- Carry out playground and other duties as directed and within the remit of the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions document.
- Build and maintain positive relationships between parents, governors, the local community and the school.
- Communicate and co-operate with any relevant external bodies.
- Be fully conversant and up to date with the school's procedures and policies.

- Participate fully with arrangements made in accordance with the school's Appraisal Policy.

Professional development

- Regularly review the effectiveness of your teaching and assessment procedures and the impact on pupils' progress, attainment and well-being, evaluating your own teaching critically and refining your approaches where necessary to improve your effectiveness.
- Be responsible for your own continuous professional development and participate fully in training and development opportunities identified by the school or as developed as an outcome of your performance management.

Health and well-being

- Establish a purposeful and safe learning environment for learners.
- Manage learners' behaviour constructively by establishing and maintaining a clear and positive framework in line with the school's Behaviour for Learning Policy.
- Use a range of behaviour management techniques and strategies adapting them as necessary to promote self-regulation and independence of all learners.
- Raise all concerns regarding the behaviour, progress or welfare/child protection of any learner with the appropriately identified person.
- Be responsible for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people within the school.
- Be aware of health and safety issues and work within the guidelines of the Health and Safety Policy.

Team working and collaboration

- Participate in any relevant meetings/professional development opportunities, which relate to the learners, curriculum or organisation of the school including pastoral arrangements and assemblies.
- Work as a team member and identify opportunities for working with colleagues and sharing the development of effective practice with them.

Exercise of particular duties

- Perform any reasonable duties as requested by the headteacher.

Subject leader responsibilities

- To be accountable for a subject area, developing, implementing and leading policies and practices reflecting commitment to high achievement through effective teaching and learning.

As a teacher at Saltdean Primary School, you will demonstrate a commitment to SMSC education, British values, Equalities, diversity and the development of positive learning behaviours across the school and wider school community.

The list of duties in the job description should not be regarded as exclusive or exhaustive. There will be other duties and requirements associated with your job and, in addition, as a term of your employment you may be required to undertake various other duties as may reasonably be required.

Your duties will be as set out in the above job description but please note that the Council reserves the right to update your job description, from time to time, to reflect changes in, or to, your job.

You will be consulted about any proposed changes.

Introduction

Thank you for applying for a position within Brighton & Hove City Council. You have applied for a post or voluntary work that falls under the definition of 'regulated position' under exemptions to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means that a criminal conviction check (or disclosure) will be undertaken on any individual who is offered the post. Where appropriate (where the post involves working with children or vulnerable adults) details will also be checked against the Department of Health and Department for Education & Skills lists. These checks are undertaken by the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS) only when a conditional offer of employment has been made but you will be asked during the recruitment process to declare any relevant information.

It is the intention of Brighton & Hove City Council not to discriminate unfairly against individuals on the basis of their previous offending history. Possession of a criminal record is not an automatic bar to obtaining employment or voluntary work.

The purpose of this Statement is to provide assurance to applicants that the information released in Enhanced Disclosures is used fairly and that sensitive personal information is handled and stored appropriately and kept for only as long as necessary.

Handling of Disclosure Information

Recipients of Disclosure Information at Brighton & Hove City Council will only disclose this information to the recruiting manager and Human Resources Manager. Unauthorised disclosure of any information provided by the DBS is an offence under Section 124 of the Police Act 1997.

Disclosure Information will be securely stored and will be retained for a maximum period of six months unless, in exceptional circumstances, formal written agreement of the DBS is obtained to retain them for a longer period. Brighton & Hove City Council as a Registered Body must comply with the DBS Code of Practice. All matters relating to the use of Disclosure Information will be undertaken in accordance with the DBS Code of Practice and Brighton & Hove City Council's Code of Practice on the Use of Disclosure Information.

Further Information

If you are successful in obtaining a conditional offer of employment (or have been accepted as a volunteer), you will be sent further information on the Disclosure process including guidance on completion of the Disclosure Application Form. Disclosures for employment will be funded by the Council and Disclosures for Volunteers are free of charge.

Further information on the DBS and the Disclosure process including the DBS Code of Practice can be obtained by visiting the web site: www.homeoffice.gov.uk/dbs or by calling 0870 90 90 844.

Further information on the Council's Policy on the Recruitment of Ex-Offenders and the Code of Practice on the Use of Disclosure Information can be obtained by contacting Human Resources.
