

Dear Candidate

Re: Cleaner post

Thank you for contacting us about this vacancy. I have pleasure in sending you an application form and further information about the post.

St. Peter's is a happy and successful, learning -centred school with a strong, family -orientated ethos. We believe in providing an inspiring learning environment for our well-behaved and confident children. We work closely with multi-agency services and are committed to parent partnership and community involvement. We have been expanding to become an all through Primary over the past 3 years and in September 2016 added our first Year 6 class.

Please have a look at our website to find out more about us:
