The Governors wish to appoint two highly motivated and enthusiastic Individual Needs Assistants to give one to one support in the class.

1. An INA with MDSA role attached, working Monday to Friday afternoons from 12 noon to 3.15pm
2. An INA only role, working Monday to Friday afternoons from 1pm to 3.15pm

You will be working one to one with pupils who display a range of needs including very challenging behaviour and/or complex, physical, medical and cognitive needs.

You may also be asked to support the class more generally during your working hours, including working with small groups.

Previous experience of working in an infant/primary school setting is essential.

Previous experience of working with children with very complex needs is highly desirable.
