Stanford Junior School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Stanford Junior School is looking to appoint an experienced HLTA who is highly motivated, skilled and creative. The role will involve: working closely with the leadership team and teaching staff to support children's learning and progress (in class, working with small groups and whole classes); facilitating management release and early career teacher release time; covering staff absence on a needs basis. This post offers a degree of flexibility with hours to be discussed at interview. HLTAs support the school's pupil premium strategy.

The successful candidate will be line managed and supported by the deputy head teacher.

We can offer you...

a supportive senior leadership team • opportunities to further your practice within a vibrant school, minutes from the city centre and Brighton's seafront • well-behaved, polite and ambitious children who are keen to learn • an amazing staff team, keen to further develop their practice • a committed governing body.

Prospective applicants are invited to arrange to visit our school.

Please contact the school office to arrange a date and time.
